Atchison – On the Record

Today Mayoral candidate Lenore Swystun released a package of information highlighting Don Atchison's record as Mayor on her website. {Lenoreswystun.com}

"One of my key platform planks is to show more transparency and accountability as a Mayor and city", said Swystun, "I felt it was important to release this information so the public has an accurate idea of what's been happening at city hall the last 6 years under Mayor Atchison's leadership."

The package includes information on property tax increases, operating and capital expenses, and more.

"I hope the public will do the research and take a close look at our current Mayor's record when deciding who to vote for on October 28", said Swystun.
